MEDICAL: BLUE CROSS BLUE SHIELD PPO

Use the New Preferred Cancer and Benign Hematology Provider

Effective February 1, 2024, the University of Pennsylvania Health System (Penn Medicine) is the preferred provider for adult cancer and adult benign hematology (non-cancer blood conditions treated by a hematologist).

The care team at UNITE HERE HEALTH and the UNITE HERE HEALTH - Health Center in Atlantic City (Health Center) is partnering with Penn Medicine to manage your adult cancer or adult benign hematology care and give you free, comprehensive coordination and services. When you use the UNITE HERE HEALTH Health Promoters and UNITE HERE HEALTH - Health Center for primary care (and more), you'll get dedicated resources to manage your care. The Health Promoters and the Health Center providers will help you work with your Penn Medicine cancer doctor, will coordinate your cancer care, treat your non-cancer medical conditions, and will also help you get free transportation to a Penn Medicine location.

This change only applies if you are in a PPO medical benefit option.

What's covered with $0 cost-sharing?
You pay $0 (no deductible, coinsurance, or copay) for:

- Covered expenses you get from Penn Medicine for the diagnosis, treatment, and surveillance of adult cancer and adult non-cancer blood conditions treated by a hematologist (including related complications).

We want you to be yourself

We stand with UNITE HERE to support the LGBTQ+ community.

We do our best to give all of our members the care they need, and as such, UNITE HERE HEALTH covers some services that are needed to change genders. These services must be medically necessary and may require prior approval.

Covered services include:

- Hormone therapy (medicine needed to change genders)
- Counseling
- Certain surgeries
- Lab work
- X-rays
- Doctors' office visits

These services are available for members, eligible spouses and dependent children. Limits apply based on age.
