

Special Enrollment Rights Notice

If you choose not to sign up your dependents for healthcare coverage under UNITE HERE HEALTH at this time because they already have other health insurance coverage, you may be able to enroll your dependents at a later time if they lose the other coverage.

You may also request special enrollment to enroll your dependents in the UNITE HERE HEALTH plan if you have one of these qualifying life events:

- A marriage.
- A childbirth.
- An adoption or placement for adoption of a child under age 26.

- A child that used to live in a foreign country comes to the United States to live with you.
- You or your dependents lose eligibility for Medicaid or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).
- You or your dependents become eligible for state financial assistance under Medicaid or a CHIP to help pay for the cost for UNITE HERE HEALTH's coverage.

You must send UNITE HERE HEALTH a request for special enrollment within 60 DAYS after your dependents lose their other coverage or a qualifying life event happens.

Receiving an enrollment notice or completing enrollment does not guarantee health coverage.

Your coverage depends on the following:

- 1) You must meet any requirements of your collective bargaining agreement;
- 2) Your employer must contribute to the Fund based on the terms of your collective bargaining agreement; and
- 3) You and your dependents must meet the plan eligibility requirements described in the Summary Plan Description (SPD). We will notify you as soon as your enrollment has been approved.
